Historical Note

These leaves, which were originally compiled in scrapbooks by the Assistant to the Dean in charge of Social Activities, Miss Mabel Foote Weeks, chronicle student life from the academic year 1924-1925 through 1952-1953. Weeks' position was described as "general supervision under the Dean and the faculty committee on student organizations, of extra-curricular activities and of the social life of the students who live outside the dormitories." Over the years, the position changed to titles such as Assistant to the Dean in charge of Student Organizations and Director of the Office of Student Affairs. After her retirement in 1939 various other women such as Miss Krueger, Mrs. English, Mrs. Read, Mrs. Coles, Dr. Christina Grant, Miss Maack and Miss Harrington oversaw the social events. The Committee on Student Affairs ceased compiling the scrapbooks in 1952 when Mrs. English left office.
